

COMPOUND VERB

A compound verb can have one base verb and one auxiliary verb or multiple base verbs and auxiliaries. Compound verb examples can be traced easily in our day-to-day communication.

Read more

Q1: A compound verb is a single verb made up of more than one word

- A: True
  - B: False
-

Q2: Which of these is a Compound verb?

- A: Shout loudly
  - B: Shout out
  - C: Talk Loudly
  - D: None
-

Q3: Select a compound verb below

- A: baby-sit
  - B: drying
  - C: easiest
  - D: None of the above
-

Q4: How many compound verbs does this sentence contain? "I wish I could time travel."

- A: 3
  - B: 2
  - C: 1
  - D: 0
-

Q5: Which of the following is an example of a three-word compound verb?

- A: Look up
  - B: Put up with
  - C: Give away
  - D: Break down
-

Q6: Which type of compound verb consists of a verb before a preposition?

- A: Phrasal verb
  - B: Prepositional verb
  - C: Two-word verb
  - D: Four-word verb
-

Q7: Fill in the blanks with the appropriate compound verb. Can you _____ the volume of the TV?

- A: Look for
  - B: Turn up
  - C: Pick up on
  - D: Take off from
-

Q8: Which of the following is a compound verb?

- A: baby sit
  - B: believe in
  - C: listen to
  - D: all of the above
-

Q9: Which of the following is an example of an inseparable verb?

- A: Turn off
  - B: Fell over
  - C: cheer up
  - D: Give away
-

Q10: Which of the following is an example of an inseparable verb? Dip into Call off Cheer up None of the above

- A: Dip into
  - B: Call off
  - C: Cheer up
  - D: None of the above
-

Answers

---

Q1: A - True

Q2: B - Shout out

Q3: A - baby-sit

Q4: C - 1

Q5: B - Put up with

Q6: B - Prepositional verb

Q7: B - Turn up

Q8: D - all of the above

Q9: B - Fell over

Q10: A - Dip into