

COUNTABLE NOUN

Nouns with a single and plural form are countable nouns. Individual units, whether physical or mental, are what they allude to. The capacity to be numbered is the primary distinction between countable and uncountable nouns. They describe things, ideas, or thoughts as a whole or in the abstract. There is no plural form of uncountable nouns, often called non-countable or bulk nouns, since they defy counting.

Read more

Q1: Pick the proper countable noun to complete the following statement. The dog in the backyard is making a lot of noise.

- A: Dog
 - B: Water
 - C: Pleasure
 - D: Discourse Data
-

Q2: What noun may be counted?

- A: Money
 - B: Time
 - C: Butter
 - D: Tree
-

Q3: Choose the appropriate plural form of the noun: _____ the book

- A: Books
 - B: bookmakers
 - C: book
 - D: The Book(s)
-

Q4: Find the noun in the statement that may be counted: She is a proud owner of two.

- A: Love
 - B: Cat
 - C: Charm
 - D: Peace
-

Q5: What noun may be counted?

- A: Air
 - B: Peace of Mind
 - C: Pane
 - D: Music
-

Q6: Pick the proper countable noun to complete the following statement. For this dish, I will need two _____.

- A: Salt
 - B: Patience
 - C: Sucrose
 - D: Furnishings
-

Q7: Choose the appropriate plural form of the noun: That kid -> ____.

- A: It's a kid
 - B: Children
 - C: Youngsters
 - D: For the Young
-

Q8: Find the noun in the statement that may be counted: Three _____ were among the fish he reeled in on the fishing expedition.

- A: H2O
 - B: Joy
 - C: Fish
 - D: Air
-

Q9: What noun may be counted?

- A: Love
 - B: the Table
 - C: Insight
 - D: A Lack of Light
-

Q10: Pick the proper countable noun to complete the following statement. I'm a father of two.

- A: Milk
 - B: Bread
 - C: for data
 - D: Concepts
-

Answers

Q1: A - Dog

Q2: D - Tree

Q3: A - Books

Q4: B - Cat

Q5: C - Pane

Q6: B - Patience

Q7: C - Youngsters

Q8: C - Fish

Q9: B - the Table

Q10: D - Concepts