

INTERROGATIVE ADVERB

Interrogative adverbs encompass a category of linguistic elements that facilitate the formulation of inquiries pertaining to various components of a sentence or a given context. These adverbs play a crucial role in information acquisition and seeking clarification. Distinguished by their distinctive “wh-” formation, encompassing terms like “who,” “what,” “where,” “when,” “why,” and “how,” interrogative adverbs initiate interrogative sentences, serving as the catalyst for the question being posed.
