

LIMITING MODIFIER

The meaning or range of a noun, verb, adjective, or adverb is limited by using words or phrases known as limiting modifiers. They aid in defining and emphasizing the context, amount, nature, or scope of anything in a statement. Limiting modifiers are essential to the language since they enhance our descriptions with clarity and specificity.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a limiting modifier?

- A: Adjectives
 - B: Nouns
 - C: Pronouns
 - D: Comparative and superlative forms
-

Q2: Which of the following is an example of a limiting modifier?

- A: Prepositional phrase
 - B: Numbers and measurements
 - C: Verb
 - D: Noun
-

Q3: What type of limiting modifier is used to express quantity?

- A: Adjectives
 - B: Adverbs
 - C: Determiners
 - D: Comparative and superlative forms
-

Q4: What do limiting modifiers do in comparative and superlative forms?

- A: Simplify complex comparisons
 - B: Contrast the features or intensities of two or more objects
 - C: Compare objects based on their category
 - D: Stress on similarities between objects
-

Q5: Which of the following is an example of a limiting modifier with numbers or measurements?

- A: Many children enjoy playing outdoors.
 - B: Some of the flowers are blooming.
 - C: The box weighs five kilograms.
 - D: Few people attended the meeting.
-

Q6: What is the favourite colour of the writer?

- A: Red
 - B: Yellow
 - C: Blue
 - D: Green
-

Q7: What do limiting modifiers do in a statement?

- A: Reduce the scope or meaning of the words they modify
 - B: Increase the size of the words they modify
 - C: Restrict the overall statement
 - D: Offer additional information without affecting the purpose
-

Q8: What is the purpose of using limiting modifiers in language?

- A: To add more adjectives
 - B: To reduce sentence length
 - C: To make the language more complex
 - D: To improve precision and clarity
-

Q9: How can adjectives function as limiting modifiers?

- A: By altering verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs.
 - B: By indicating the frequency of an action or attribute.
 - C: By expressing the speaker's opinion about a noun.
 - D: By providing further details about a noun or pronoun, specifying its features or properties.
-

Q10: What are determiners?

- A: Words that appear before and restrict nouns
 - B: Phrases that modify adjectives
 - C: Words that amplify verbs
 - D: Prepositions that indicate the location
-

Answers

Q1: A - Adjectives

Q2: A - Prepositional phrase

Q3: C - Determiners

Q4: B - Contrast the features or intensities of two or more objects

Q5: C - The box weighs five kilograms.

Q6: C - Blue

Q7: A - Reduce the scope or meaning of the words they modify

Q8: D - To improve precision and clarity

Q9: D - By providing further details about a noun or pronoun, specifying its features or properties.

Q10: A - Words that appear before and restrict nouns