

HOMOGRAPH

homographs are words that are pronounced the same or differently based on their meanings. Homographs add complexity to language by having multiple meanings and often belonging to different parts of speech. They enrich vocabulary, enhance contextual understanding, and foster cognitive development. Homograph also play a role in humor and wordplay, challenging individuals to decipher intended meanings and appreciate linguistic intricacies. Understanding and effectively using homographs are essential for fluent and nuanced communication.

Read more

Q1: The right way to solve this equation is to cross-multiply.

A: correct path

B: opposite of wrong

Q2: I need to bat for the team today, but my swing is rusty.

A: nocturnal creature

B: hit a ball with a bat

Q3: The farmer carefully tilled the soil before planting his crops.

A: small drawer

B: prepared the land for farming

Q4: The bark of the dog alerted me to someone at the door.

A: outer covering of a tree

B: sound made by a dog

Q5: The singer's farewell performance brought tears to everyone's eyes.

A: money paid for transportation

B: goodbye

Q6: I accidentally left my keys in the car again!

A: departed

B: past tense of 'leave'

Q7: The fine print on the contract was difficult to read.

A: beautiful

B: small handwriting

Q8: The bat swooped down from the rafters, catching a moth in its wings.

A: nocturnal flying mammal

B: baseball equipment

Q9: The chef seasoned the dish with a pinch of salt and pepper.

A: added flavor

B: changed the weather

Q10: We need to wind the clock before it stops working.

A: turn something to tighten it

B: blow with strong force

Answers

Q1: B - opposite of wrong

Q2: B - hit a ball with a bat

Q3: B - prepared the land for farming

Q4: B - sound made by a dog

Q5: B - goodbye

Q6: A - departed

Q7: B - small handwriting

Q8: A - nocturnal flying mammal

Q9: A - added flavor

Q10: A - turn something to tighten it