

ONOMATOPOEIA

Onomatopoeia meaning describes those cool-sounding words that imitate the sounds they represent. You know, like “meow” for a cat’s sound or “buzz” for a bee. Essentially, it emulates sound effects encountered in real life! Now, why is this important? Well, onomatopoeia has the ability to introduce an entirely novel facet into our linguistic framework, thereby augmenting our means of expression and interaction.

Read more

Q1: Which of these words is an example of vehicular onomatopoeia?

- A: Vroom
 - B: Moo
 - C: Crash
 - D: Sizzle
-

Q2: Which of the following is an example of onomatopoeia in nature?

- A: The chirping of birds
 - B: The rustling of leaves
 - C: The scent of flowers
 - D: The warmth of sunlight
-

Q3: Which of these is an example of animal onomatopoeia?

- A: Roar
 - B: Beep
 - C: Crash
 - D: Sizzle
-

Q4: Which of the following is an example of a sound onomatopoeia?

- A: Crash
 - B: Meow
 - C: Whistle
 - D: Giggle
-

Q5: Which of the following is an example of a mechanical onomatopoeia?

- A: Buzz
 - B: Sizzle
 - C: Honk
 - D: Boom
-

Q6: Which of the following is an example of a human onomatopoeia?

- A: Roar
 - B: Hiss
 - C: Snore
 - D: Splash
-

Q7: Which of the following is an example of an animal onomatopoeia?

- A: Beep
 - B: Clang
 - C: Quack
 - D: Tick-tock
-

Q8: Which of the following is an example of a water-related onomatopoeia?

- A: Chirp
 - B: Whirr
 - C: Drip
 - D: Thump
-

Q9: Which of the following is an example of a sound onomatopoeia?

- A: Whisper
 - B: Bounce
 - C: Jingle
 - D: Crunch
-

Q10: Which of the following is an example of a nature-related onomatopoeia?

- A: Ding
 - B: Hoot
 - C: Slurp
 - D: Pop
-

Answers

Q1: A - Vroom

Q2: A - The chirping of birds

Q3: A - Roar

Q4: B - Meow

Q5: C - Honk

Q6: C - Snore

Q7: C - Quack

Q8: C - Drip

Q9: D - Crunch

Q10: B - Hoot