

PARAGRAPH

The paragraph is an important part of English writing in a more structured manner. So, let's start with a paragraph meaning. The paragraph is organized and structured ways of writing sentences that are from a single topic. For instance, you can write 2-3 lines about Australia together in an organized way.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is NOT an element of a well-developed paragraph?

- A: Thesis statements
  - B: Pointers
  - C: Conclusion
  - D: Introduction
-

Q2: Which of the following is NOT a common mistake to avoid when writing paragraphs?

- A: Coherence
  - B: Lack of unity
  - C: Missing examples
  - D: Missing conclusion
-

Q3: Which of the following statements about paragraph writing is true?

- A: The paragraph should have a concluding sentence.
  - B: A paragraph can be 2 sentences.
  - C: A paragraph can skip examples
  - D: A paragraph cannot be improved.
-

Q4: What are the elements of a good paragraph?

- A: Topic sentence> supporting sentence> concluding sentence
  - B: Intro body
  - C: Body paragraphs
  - D: Intro- examples-conclusion
-

Q5: What should be an ideal paragraph?

- A: 2 to 3 lines
  - B: 1 to 2 lines
  - C: 5 to 10 lines
  - D: 15 to 20 lines
-

Q6: Which of the following is important for a paragraph?

- A: Clarity and coherence
  - B: Unity
  - C: Transition
  - D: All the above
-

Q7: Can a paragraph contain more than one idea?

- A: Yes
  - B: No
-

Q8: Examples are a must in your paragraph?

- A: True
  - B: False
-

Q9: Can you revise and edit paragraphs with transition words?

- A: True
  - B: False
-

Q10: What makes a paragraph strong or good?

- A: The paragraph that has the intro to the conclusion
  - B: Paragraphs that depict ideas with clarity.
  - C: The paragraph where sentences are transitioned smoothly.
  - D: All of the above.
-

Answers

---

Q1: B - Pointers

Q2: A - Coherence

Q3: A - The paragraph should have a concluding sentence.

Q4: A - Topic sentence> supporting sentence> concluding sentence

Q5: C - 5 to 10 lines

Q6: D - All the above

Q7: B - No

Q8: A - True

Q9: A - True

Q10: D - All of the above.