

POSSESSIVE NOUN

The English language relies heavily on the concept of possessive noun to denote ownership and connections between nouns. We can say that something belongs to someone or something else by adding the possessive form to a noun. For efficient communication, it is crucial to comprehend possessive nouns. In this post, we will explore the nuances of possessive nouns and discover how to use them correctly in sentences.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a possessive noun?

- A: Book's
  - B: To'
  - C: Cares
  - D: Friend
-

Q2: What is the possessive form of the singular noun 'dog'?

- A: Dog
  - B: Dogs'
  - C: Dog's
  - D: Dogs
-

Q3: Which option shows the correct possessive form of the plural noun for 'child'?

- A: Childs'
  - B: Childs
  - C: Child's
  - D: Children's
-

Q4: What is the purpose of possessive nouns?

- A: To modify verbs
  - B: To denote locations
  - C: To indicate ownership and relationships
  - D: To form plural nouns
-

Q5: Which of the following examples shows a possessive noun indicating ownership?

- A: The team's victory was well-deserved.
  - B: The cat's toy was missing.
  - C: The baby's blanket was soft
  - D: All of the above
-

Q6: How are possessive nouns formed?

- A: By capitalizing the first letter of the noun
  - B: By removing the last letter of the noun
  - C: By adding a hyphen to the noun
  - D: By adding an apostrophe ('s) or sometimes just an apostrophe to the noun
-

Q7: Which rule is followed when forming possessive nouns with singular nouns?

- A: Adding an apostrophe ('s) to the singular noun
  - B: Adding an apostrophe (') to the singular noun
  - C: Adding a question mark to the singular noun
  - D: Adding a comma to the singular noun
-

Q8: What does the possessive noun 'company's' modify in the phrase 'the company's profits'?

- A: The verb 'modifies.'
  - B: The adjective 'the.'
  - C: The noun 'profits.'
  - D: The noun 'company.'
-

Q9: Which group of words shows an incorrect use of a possessive noun?

- A: The doctor's appointment is tomorrow.
  - B: The dog's collar was blue.
  - C: My sister's car is in the garage.
  - D: The children's toys were scattered.
-

Q10: What common mistake can occur when forming possessive nouns?

- A: Using too many adjectives
  - B: Adding unnecessary capitalization
  - C: Misusing apostrophes
  - D: Confusing nouns and verbs
-

Answers

---

Q1: A - Book's

Q2: C - Dog's

Q3: D - Children's

Q4: C - To indicate ownership and relationships

Q5: D - All of the above

Q6: D - By adding an apostrophe ('s) or sometimes just an apostrophe to the noun

Q7: A - Adding an apostrophe ('s) to the singular noun

Q8: C - The noun 'profits.'

Q9: B - The dog's collar was blue.

Q10: C - Misusing apostrophes