

PROGRESSIVE TENSE

Progressive tense is an English word tense describing any continuing action. The definition of Progressive Tense is any action that is ongoing and is under progress. These can be in any form of past, future, or present. The rule for using the progressive tense is to express the current action that is in progress and is not completed. The primary example of progressive tense is to add 'ing' with the auxiliary verb.

Read more

Q1: Which sentence correctly uses the present progressive tense?

- A: A. 'I will be playing now.'
 - B: B. 'I am playing now.'
 - C: C. 'I have been playing now.'
 - D: D. 'I had been playing now.'
-

Q2: In which sentence is the progressive tense used correctly?

- A: A. 'We are walking now.'
 - B: B. 'We have to walk for two hours.'
 - C: C. 'We have walking for two hours.'
 - D: D. 'We walked for two hours.'
-

Q3: Which sentence correctly uses the progressive tense?

- A: A. 'He was go to the park.'
 - B: B. 'He is go to the park.'
 - C: C. 'He was going to the park.'
 - D: D. 'Will he go to the park?'
-

Q4: Which sentence uses the past progressive tense?

- A: A. 'I am eating chocolates.'
 - B: B. 'I have been eating chocolates.'
 - C: C. 'I will be eating chocolates.'
 - D: D. 'I was eating chocolates.'
-

Q5: Which sentence uses the present perfect progressive tense?

- A: A. 'I am reading the book.'
 - B: B. 'I will be reading the book.'
 - C: C. 'I have been reading the book.'
 - D: D. 'I had read the book.'
-

Q6: What to use in a future progressive tense?

- A: A. 'Will be'
 - B: B. 'Was'
 - C: C. 'Would being'
 - D: D. 'Is'
-

Q7: Which sentence is in future progressive tense?

- A: A. 'He is going to the zoo.'
 - B: B. 'He will go to the zoo.'
 - C: C. 'He will be going to the zoo.'
 - D: D. 'He is at the zoo.'
-

Q8: Which sentence is in past perfect progressive tense?

- A: A. 'They had been chatting the whole day.'
 - B: B. 'They are chatting the whole day.'
 - C: C. 'They will be chatting the whole day.'
 - D: D. 'They will chat the whole day.'
-

Q9: What is used for past perfect progressive tense?

- A: A. 'Have been'
 - B: B. 'Is'
 - C: C. 'Being'
 - D: D. 'Had been'
-

Q10: Which sentence is in future perfect progressive tense?

- A: A. 'Samuel will be starting his classes soon.'
 - B: B. 'Samuel will start his classes soon.'
 - C: C. 'Samuel is starting his classes soon.'
 - D: D. 'Samuel will be start his classes soon.'
-

Answers

Q1: B - B. 'I am playing now.'

Q2: A - A. 'We are walking now.'

Q3: C - C. 'He was going to the park.'

Q4: D - D. 'I was eating chocolates.'

Q5: C - C. 'I have been reading the book.'

Q6: A - A. 'Will be'

Q7: C - C. 'He will be going to the zoo.'

Q8: A - A. 'They had been chatting the whole day.'

Q9: D - D. 'Had been'

Q10: A - A. 'Samuel will be starting his classes soon.'