

QUOTATION MARKS

Revamp your writing skills with EduLyte's English trainers. Discover tricks to write amazingly and brush up on your language. Sign up for free learning resources!

Read more

Q1: What is the purpose of using quotation marks in writing?

- A: To indicate emphasis on certain words or phrases.
  - B: To enclose direct speech or dialogue.
  - C: To separate paragraphs in a text.
  - D: To mark the beginning and end of a paragraph.
-

Q2: What is the purpose of using single quotation marks?

- A: To enclose direct speech or dialogue.
  - B: To indicate emphasis on certain words or phrases.
  - C: To mark the beginning and end of a paragraph.
  - D: To enclose quotes within quotes or for particular terms.
-

Q3: Which of the following is an example of a correctly punctuated quotation?

- A: 'I can't believe it' she said.
  - B: 'I can't believe it,' she said.
  - C: 'I can't believe it,' she said.
  - D: 'I can't believe it,' she said.
-

Q4: Choose the correct sentence with quotation marks.

- A: 'I'll be there in 5 minutes' he said.
  - B: 'I'll be there in 5 minutes' he said.
  - C: 'I'll be there in 5 minutes' he said.
  - D: 'I'll be there in 5 minutes' he said.
-

Q5: Choose the sentence with the right placement of exclamation marks in sentences with quotation marks.

- A: Wow! What a beautiful day!" she exclaimed.
  - B: Wow! What a beautiful day!" she exclaimed!
  - C: Wow! What a beautiful day!" she exclaimed.
  - D: Wow! What a beautiful day"! she exclaimed.
-

Q6: Choose the sentence with the correct use of quotation marks.

- A: She said, "I can't believe it."
  - B: He said "I can't believe it".
  - C: She said I can't believe it."
  - D: He said, I can't believe it.
-

Q7: Choose the sentence with the correct use of quotation marks.

- A: She said, "I can't believe it."
  - B: He said "I can't believe it".
  - C: She said I can't believe it."
  - D: He said, I can't believe it.
-

Q8: Choose the sentence with the correct placement of the semicolon in sentences with quotation marks.

- A: I'll be there"; she said.
  - B: I'll be there"; she said; "please wait for me."
  - C: I'll be there;" she said.
  - D: I'll be there"; she said, "please wait for me."
-

Q9: When should double inverted commas (quotation marks) be used?

- A: To indicate emphasis on specific words or phrases.
  - B: To separate paragraphs in a text.
  - C: To enclose direct speech or dialogue.
  - D: To mark the beginning and end of a paragraph.
-

Q10: Which of the following is an example of a correctly punctuated quotation?

- A: She said "I'll be there in five minutes."
  - B: She said, "I'll be there in five minutes".
  - C: She said, "I'll be there in five minutes."
  - D: She said, I'll be there in five minutes.
-

Answers

---

Q1: B - To enclose direct speech or dialogue.

Q2: D - To enclose quotes within quotes or for particular terms.

Q3: C - 'I can't believe it,' she said.

Q4: B - 'I'll be there in 5 minutes' he said.

Q5: A - Wow! What a beautiful day!" she exclaimed.

Q6: A - She said, "I can't believe it."

Q7: A - She said, "I can't believe it."

Q8: D - 'I'll be there'; she said, "please wait for me."

Q9: C - To enclose direct speech or dialogue.

Q10: C - She said, "I'll be there in five minutes."