

SUBJECT

Feeling lost amidst grammar rules regarding subjects? Worry no more! EduLyte, the ultimate language-learning platform, has the leading personalised solutions for your English language-learning needs.

Read more

Q1: Which sentence has a compound subject?

- A: The sun sets beautifully over the horizon.
  - B: The cat chased the mouse.
  - C: John and Mary are going to the store.
  - D: She loves to read books.
-

Q2: Which sentence has an implied subject?

- A: Run as fast as you can.
  - B: The flowers bloomed in the spring.
  - C: Baking cookies is her favourite hobby.
  - D: Cried during the sad movie.
-

Q3: Which sentence has a compound subject?

- A: The sun rises in the east.
  - B: The dog barked loudly.
  - C: John and Jane went to the party.
  - D: She likes to sing and dance.
-

Q4: Which option correctly defines the difference between a subject and an object in a sentence?

- A: The subject acts as a sentence while the object receives the action.
  - B: The subject is always a noun, while the object is always a pronoun.
  - C: The subject is usually found at the end of a sentence, while the object is at the beginning.
  - D: The subject and the object serve the same role in a sentence.
-

Q5: Which option correctly identifies the subject in the interrogative sentence?

- A: What are you doing?
  - B: Did the cat climb the tree?
  - C: Where is the book?
  - D: Who likes ice cream?
-

Q6: Which option correctly identifies the subject in the sentence?

- A: Running fast is good exercise.
  - B: The children played in the park.
  - C: After the rain stopped.
  - D: The cake was delicious.
-

Q7: Which option correctly identifies the subject and the object in the sentence?

- A: The dog chased the ball.
  - B: Running is good exercise.
  - C: She sings beautifully.
  - D: The sun sets in the west.
-

Q8: Which option demonstrates correct subject-verb agreement in the sentence?

- A: The dog barked loudly.
  - B: The dogs barks loudly.
  - C: The dogs barked loudly.
  - D: The dog barks loudly.
-

Q9: Which option correctly identifies the subject in the sentence?

- A: The cat meowed loudly.
  - B: Eating ice cream on a hot day.
  - C: Quickly running to catch the bus.
  - D: Into the dark and mysterious forest.
-

Q10: Which option correctly demonstrates subject-verb agreement in the sentence?

- A: The book are interesting.
  - B: The books is interesting.
  - C: The books are interesting.
  - D: The book is interesting.
-

Answers

---

Q1: C - John and Mary are going to the store.

Q2: A - Run as fast as you can.

Q3: C - John and Jane went to the party.

Q4: A - The subject acts as a sentence while the object receives the action.

Q5: D - Who likes ice cream?

Q6: B - The children played in the park.

Q7: A - The dog chased the ball.

Q8: D - The dog barks loudly.

Q9: A - The cat meowed loudly.

Q10: D - The book is interesting.