

OBJECTIVE CASE

When a noun and pronoun act as an object in a sentence, it is known as an objective case. Objective case pronouns are, “Me” “him, it us, and them. We use objective cases when something is being done or offered to someone.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following pronouns is in the objective case?

- A: they
  - B: I
  - C: Me
  - D: We
-

Q2: Identify the objective case pronoun in the sentence, "_She brought flowers for him_"

- A: She
  - B: Him
  - C: ourselves
  - D: She
-

Q3: Which of the following is an objective case noun?

- A: Bag
  - B: Rabbit
  - C: Cat
  - D: They
-

Q4: Kindly provide this book to

- A: His
  - B: Me
  - C: Mine
  - D: Her
-

Q5: David and ....went for shopping

- A: Him
  - B: His
  - C: Himself
  - D: He
-

Q6: He saw ... at the party

- A: She
  - B: Herself
  - C: Himself
  - D: Him
-

Q7: She called ...for helping at home

- A: us
  - B: Our
  - C: Herself
  - D: We
-

Q8: He asked ... to help him

- A: his
  - B: they
  - C: she
  - D: her
-

Q9: He surprised ... wife on the anniversary

- A: herself
  - B: her
  - C: His
  - D: him
-

Q10: He accompanied ... throughout the way

- A: they
  - B: himself
  - C: Me
  - D: she
-

Answers

---

Q1: C - Me

Q2: B - Him

Q3: D - They

Q4: B - Me

Q5: D - He

Q6: A - She

Q7: A - us

Q8: D - her

Q9: B - her

Q10: C - Me